

The Colonnade

VOL. IX.

GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, MILLEDGEVILLE, GA. MAY 11, 1934

NO. 27

G.S.C.W. Honors Students' Parents Today

Dr. Herty Given Medal For Work

CHEMIST RECIPIENT OF OWN AWARD FOR DEVELOPMENT OF NEWS-PRINT FROM PINES.

Dr. Charles Herty was the recipient of the medal bearing his name which was presented by the Chemistry Club of the Georgia State College for Women at the meeting of the Georgia division of the American Chemical Society here Saturday in the Russell Auditorium.

The Herty medal was awarded by the club for the first time last May to Dr. Fred Allison of Auburn, Ala., and is to be presented annually to the scientist in the southeastern United States who has contributed the most to the field of research during that year.

Dr. Herty has made history in scientific research with newsprint made from soft slash pines proved equal to that made from Canadian spruce.

Miss India Brown, president of the Chemistry Club presided and presented the medal to Dr. Harold B. Friedman, chairman of the Georgia division of the American Chemical society.

She said the medal is more or less the corner stone to the inevitable future growth of scientific research.

Dr. Friedman expressed his appreciation of the award and in turn presented the medal to Dr. J. Sam Guy of Emory, chairman of awards.

In his acceptance speech Dr. Herty expressed deep appreciation in his simple and charming manner.

He also spoke of the new field in chemical research from a health viewpoint.

The guests including many prominent scientists were entertained at a reception at Westover, historic old home of Dr. Lindsey, head of the Chemistry department, from 4 to 6 p. m. At 6:30 p. m. Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Beeson entertained at a banquet in Atkinson dining room.

Mallory Elected Freshman Leader

At a meeting of the freshman class last week Catherine Mallory, Savannah, who was formerly vice-president, was elected president to succeed Elizabeth Carswell. Myra Jenkins, Thomaston, was chosen as vice-president. Robbie Rogers and Juliette Burris, who were elected at the beginning of the year, are secretary and treasurer respectively.

G S C Editors Attend Athens Press Meet

Five representatives from the Georgia State College for Women attended the press meet in Athens May 4. The group, composed of Helen Ennis, Claudia Keith, Mary Louise Dunn, Frances X. Profumo, and Dorothy Maddox, was accompanied by Dr. William T. Wynn.

At the meeting two outstanding newspapermen, Ralph Jones of the Atlanta Constitution and O. B. Keeler of the Atlanta Journal, told some interesting events in their newspaper careers. President S. V. Sanford of the University, Paul W. Chapman, dean of the College of Agriculture, Dean L. L. Hendren of the University, and Dr. John T. Wheeler, professor of vocational education, also spoke.

The luncheon for the college delegates was given at the Holman Hotel at which time Dr. W. T. Wynn of this college gave a short address.

A round table discussion then held and the problems of the various college publications in Georgia thoroughly discussed.

The meeting closed after officers for next year had been elected. They are president, Bill Maner, Georgia Tech; Vice-president, Amy Cleckler, Wesleyan; and secretary and treasurer, Tom Dozier, Georgia.

Athletic Council To Sponsor Play Week

Organized Plays and Games Will Be Sponsored May 14-19

During the week of May 14-19 G. S. C. W. will have its first Play Week. This week of organized plays and games, planned and sponsored by Athletic Council, will emphasize sports and games from the group standpoint.

In past years play days and field days have been carried out with interclass competition, but this year the play week will stress intercolor games. A Brown-Gold contest has been planned for every afternoon during the week, the games to be played at 5:30. The following program has been arranged:

Monday, May 14—Volleyball.
Tuesday, May 15—Baseball.
Wednesday, May 16—Basketball.

Thursday, May 17—Eight courts of low organized sports.

Friday, May 18—Baseball tourney.

Friday night at 8:00 there will be a dancing festival in the auditorium. Miss Candler's advanced dancing class will present group performances of varied types.

On Saturday morning at 10:00 the tennis finals, both singles and doubles, will be played. At the

(Continued on back page)

DEDICATION

To the parents of every girl at the Georgia State College for Women, the staff dedicates this issue of the Colonnade. Sincere love and appreciation are in the hearts of each student always, but especially today when the college honors those nearest and dearest to us, do we want to make it evident.

To those parents not on the campus we send greetings and an assurance that you are being thought of as well as the ones present. And to you in this dedication we send love and appreciation for your making possible our opportunities at the Georgia State College for Women.

Ethel Adams Named Dean of Women

GUY WELLS ELECTS GRIFIN TEACHER AS G. S. C. W. OFFICER

Miss Ethel Adams, dean of girls and head of the English department of Griffin High school, has been selected by President-elect Guy H. Wells as dean of Women of G. S. C. W. for the scholastic year 1934-35.

Miss Adams is a graduate of Piedmont college, with a B. S. degree and has had graduate work at the University of Georgia. During the coming summer she will study at Columbia University and report for duty at G. S. C. W. September 1.

Miss Adams has taught in Tifton, Fort Valley, Hawkinsville, and Griffin. The latter position she has held for the past nine years.

"She is one of the most efficient and able teachers I have ever known," Superintendent George W. Wannamaker of the Griffin schools says.

Mr. Wells says of her, "She is greatly beloved by the people of Griffin and other towns in which she has lived."

G. S. C. W. Students Hear Dr. Glasgow In Chapel Speech

Dr. Samuel McPeters Glasgow, of Savannah, who was conducting a series of services at the Milledgeville Presbyterian church last week, was the speaker at the chapel exercises at G. S. C. W. Tuesday morning May 1, at 11 o'clock.

Speaking on "Life's Values," Dr. Glasgow said that the valuation put on life is largely dependent on the way we live. With such marvelous divergences, so many beckoning paths, it is of much value how we esteem life.

G. S. C. W. Dramatists Will Put on Play

The Dramatic Club of the Georgia State College for Women will present its main project of the year with the staging of the four-act play, "Lady Windemere's Fan," by Oscar Wilde, on May 15, at 8:30 o'clock in the Russell auditorium.

The cast of the play is as follows: Lady Windemere, Georgellen Walker; Lord Darlington, Betty Watt; Lord Windemere, Martha Grey Carther; Mrs. Evelynne, Catherine Mallory; Lord Augustus Lorton, Martha Harrison; Cecil Graham, Eulalie McDowell; Mr. Dunby, Virginia Shedd; Mr. Hopper, Caroline Coleman; Parker, Edna Lattimore; Duchess of Benneck, Patricia Madden; Lady Agatha Carlisle, Evelyn Turner; Lady Plyndale, Weldon Seals; Lady Jedburgh, Harriette Stoke Smith; Lady Stulfield, Mary Peacock; Mrs. Cowper-Cowper, Garnette Lynes; and Rosalie, Miriam Davis.

The play will be directed by Catherine Mallory. Proceeds of the play will go on the college Y. W. C. A. budget.

Chairmen of the committees are general stage committee, Dr. George Harris Webber; stage, Marion Hartshorn; property, June O'Neal; poster, Bobbie Wiley, and program, Ruth Richardson.

Guy Wells Succeeds Dr. Beeson July 1

Both Educators Have Been Active At State's Prominent Institutions

Dr. J. L. Beeson, who has been President and Dean of Women at G. S. C. W. since 1927, will complete his last year of service to this college on July 1, 1934, becoming president emeritus, and will be succeeded by President Guy H. Wells, of South Georgia Teachers College at Statesboro.

During his administration President Beeson has made many constructive contributions to this college notably along the lines of buildings, equipment, scholarship, and student organization. He has been largely responsible for the erection of the Parks Memorial Hospital, Miller S. Bell Hall, and the Ina Dillard Russell Library in the last few years.

Mr. Wells has been president of the South Georgia Teachers College since 1926. He attended Mercer, Columbia, and did graduate work at Peabody College. He has served as Superintendent of schools at Lumpkin, Richland, and at Eastman. It was in the course of his administration at the college at Statesboro that his work began to attract state-wide attention. He is regarded as able, efficient, and persistent. He is a good planner and splendid educator.

Granddaughters Sponsor Event

TOURS OF CAMPUS AND MILLEDGEVILLE, TEA AT MANSION, ENTERTAINMENT PLANNED.

The Granddaughters' Club of G. S. C. W. which is sponsoring the first Parents' Day at this college, extends a hearty welcome to all of the parents of the student body and hopes that just as many as can will visit here on that day.

The Granddaughters' Club of G. S. C. W., in sponsoring the first Parents' Day at the college, is giving the entire student body and faculty something they will remember always.

More than five hundred parents are expected and much friendly competition between the classes and dormitories is in progress, each one hoping to have the most parents here.

A delightful program has been planned and the parents are expected to enjoy themselves to the fullest.

Every G. S. C. W. student has been looking forward to May 11, and they hope that Parents' Day after this will be an annual affair. Each dormitory and each class has its own colors and the parents are urged to register and get their colors as soon as possible.

The program for the day is:

9:00-1:30: Registration on the porch of Parks Hall.

9:00-11:00: Visit classes.

11:00-11:45: Chapel. Special numbers will be given by students.

11:45-1:30: Tour of the campus. Students will act as guides and groups will leave Parks Hall at intervals.

1:30-2:30: Dinner.

Immediately after dinner pictures of the granddaughters and their mothers will be made in front of Atkinson hall.

3:00-4:00: Sight-seeing trip of Milledgeville.

4:00-5:00 Reception at the Mansion given by Dr. and Mrs. Beeson.

Archery Instructor Gives Demonstration

Mr. W. D. Hershberger, professional archery instructor from Grantsville, Maryland, was a visitor on the campus Tuesday, May 1. He gave demonstrations to the students throughout the day.

Mr. Hershberger is field reporter for the "Archery Review" and travels about the country giving exhibitions and conducting tournaments.

The Colonnade
Published Weekly By Students of The
GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE
FOR WOMEN
Corner Hancock and Clark Sts.
Milledgeville, Ga.

"Entered as second-class matter October 30, 1928, at the post office, Milledgeville, Ga., under the Act of March 3, 1879."

EDITORIAL STAFF
Editor-In-Chief Dorothy Maddox
Managing Editor Claudia Keith
News Editor Frances X. Profumo
Associate Editor Su Mansfield
Feature Editor Mary Louise Dunn
Alumnus Editor Julia Bailey
Reporters
Anne Annett, Jane Cassels, Betty Reed,
Mary Davis Harper, Katie Isials,
Olive Jordan, Mildred Parker, Jean
Wytie, Winnie Sheppard, Dorothy Wilkinson.

BUSINESS STAFF
Exchange Editor Helen Ennis
Circulation Managers Esther Barron,
Leona Shepherd.

Circulation Assistants—
India Brown, Rachael Conine, Elizabeth
Henry, Julia Franklin, Garnette Lynes,
Mildred Watson, Kathleen Loveless.

Typists—Margaret Harvin, Mary Lance.

WELCOME, PARENTS

We are always glad to have visitors on our campus. We are proud of G. S. C. W. and welcome any opportunity to display its charms to those interested. But it makes us doubly happy when those visitors are persons who are near and dear to us. There is a certain deep pleasure in introducing people whom we love to surroundings which have come to play an important part in our lives.

This, our first Parents' Day, gives us a chance to acquaint our parents with G. S. C. W., and G. S. C. W. in all its varied aspects, with our parents. It is our belief and hope that the meeting will be mutually enlightening and pleasant.

Parents, we welcome you to G. S. C. W. With the announcement that a constitution for next year's Student Government Association is now being inspected by President Beeson and President-elect Wells, and will soon be in its final form, comes a realization that the temporary association which we have had this year has accomplished something, after all.

Student Council has been working rather quietly and unobtrusively, and there have, perhaps, been some complaints against the slow rate of change. But a view of the entire development will show that there has been change—and a surprisingly large amount of it—for the better. We have demonstrated our aptitude for self-government in a restricted scope, and are now ready for a wider field of authority.

In any student body composed of over a thousand girls, as this one is, there is a great need for a dean of women in charge of the discipline and personal problems of the students. A dean of women will, we believe, take over this responsibility, and form a closer contact with the students.

From reports of those who know her, it seems that the selection of Miss Adams for the office was a happy one. She is a woman of keen intellect, executive ability, and sympathetic understanding of young people. We feel that she will fill this long-existent gap in the college staff in a very satisfactory manner. We welcome her cordially, and wish her the greatest success in her work here.

The G. S. C. W. Spirit

It was during my first day on the campus that I discovered the existence of the G. S. C. W. Spirit. I could not enter into it. I didn't know how. But it was at the first chapel exercise, so alien to freshmen, when that audience of students, weary with the heat that September brings, stood singing the Alma Mater—

"Through the years, the standards of you— Guide us to goals ever higher and true."

Then, it all came over me—that spirit—those girls singing that song had it. It was here, everywhere. What paradox that a thing so evident, so deeply rooted should give one a feeling of hopelessness in trying to fathom it.

Now that my four years are coming to a close, I feel still my inability to analyze the Spirit of the place and the people. It is more vivid now, however, because I am a part of it and of me, but still so intangible.

From the founding of the institution that a spirit of democracy, willingness, helpfulness, and for want of better words, that "falling in and carrying on" has prevailed. When this Spirit ceases to prevail there will be no G. S. C. W. When the hundreds of eager, young, questioning hearts do not feel the unseen spirit knocking for admittance at the door of their innermost beings, then the all-powerful thing that is G. S. C. W. is wan.

Those that have gone before us have left such a magnificent light that our college has become a mecca of all that is good and fine and noble. May we, too, leave a clear strong light in our wake and sing with the poet—

"As time your statue grew,
Your spirit sprang and you were you,
Not a mere mass of rooms and roll,
But a living creature of a living soul.

In the eternal merge of time
You'll reign a spirit ever sublime
To grasp the hand of faltering youth
And lead him in his quest of truth."

Chemists, doctors, and others concerned, say that the whiskers of the sand-fly are the cause of hay fever. That may be true, but they can also cause other things than hay fever—probably, for one thing, and in a big way.

Faith may move a mountain, but it's not so powerful when you'd like something to move that awful empty feeling in your—well, wherever you feel the pangs of hunger.

"The Dreamer" by Julian Green is based on a newspaper notice of the suicide of a student who put a bullet through his head and gathered enough force to wash his face in a basin, before he stretched himself out on his bed to die.

"Post-Bag Diversions" by E. V. Lucas is something new in the way of literary reminiscences—a group of brilliant and revealing letters received by E. V. Lucas from Beerbohm, Bennett, Galsworthy, Kipling, Conrad, Shaw and others.

"The Land of Plenty" is a novel of social criticism by twenty-six-year-old Robert Cantwell. "Merchants of Death" by H. C. Englebrecht and F. C. Hanighen is a study of the international armament industry.

An excellent novel about Hawaii is "The Lord's Anointed" by Ruth Eleanor McKee. "Five Silver Daughters" is Louis Goulding's contribution to current fiction.

The Mother's Day Stamp

In appreciation of the generous blessings of our mothers the United States Government deemed it fitting that our mothers should be honored on their day by something that was high and deserving. Accordingly, a stamp with the picture that everyone knows resulted.

This picture was painted by Whistler, the famous American artist, and is the actual portrait of his own mother.

The recognition of the great blessings of our mothers merits this remembrance. We are glad that it so happens that we are allowed such an opportunity and privilege. Mothers, we appreciate your worth, and, indeed, are we fortunate in such blessings. Together are we proud of our mothers and fathers!

This 'N' That

Yeah, Money talks—but it doesn't speak our language.

A prominent scientist says that by very accurate tests he has proved that each kiss shortens the life of a person three minutes. Most people would agree that they had rather go on and take a shorter and sweeter life.

Attention, you poor chicken-wing-eaters! A Washington scientist is trying to develop a wingless chicken—he has practically succeeded—so maybe you can get a decent piece of the chicken after this.

No wonder all little boys want to be explorers and go to the south pole when they grow up. A news item in a certain paper has informed the newspaper-reading public that nobody on Byrd's expedition takes baths at the southern end of the hemisphere.

So the telephone company thinks there is safety in numbers, does it? Tsk, tsk, that's just too much—we can't take it.

Right at the side of the one we love best,

Our own mothers—whom we all love so dear(ly).

So it gives us great pleasure to have you here for a day, And we hope that you like it so fine.

That you'll hurry back soon for a day—or a week—

To have you here dear parents—

it's SUBLIME!

P. S.—To the parents who can't "make it":

This last ryme is transcribed,

Our thoughts are with you in all

The fun of which you're deprived.

P. S., Jr.—Parents, oh, parents,

Abide with this ryme,

The bats in the belfry abide,

But Spring does affect me

In just such a way—

Nevertheless—I'm on your side!

One professor assigned a special report to a girl recently to be given at 9 o'clock on Parent's Day.

"Please give it to me for Monday, instead," said the dear daughter. "My parents will be here then and will visit this class."

Points "pro" and "con" were discussed for a while. At last the professor said, "I have it! We'll rehearse our questions and answers.

Then when Miss So and So's parents walk in I'll ask her a question and she'll give a splendid answer."

"Yeah, that sounds swell," answered the girl, "but what will they say when the report card is received?"

Parents, there's one thing certain about this visit. We certainly cleaned out dresser drawers and closet shelves! Mothers are like that—

SCOOPS

Parently Parental

Parents, oh parents
You have come to us now,
The day of all days is at hand;
Our hearts are so full
Of your coming—and Spring!
It's time to strike up our school band!

(Note: We're just out.)
The school is as clean as the slate
first at school,
The campus has ne'er been so
green,
All the faculty and students and matrons and maids
Have arranged the best time ever seen."

We have banners and colors and singing and rides,
And a barbecue fit for a king!
To-day, our dear parents, is the awaited affair—

When together we have our
"school fling!"
Now some of us plan to go home
with you, too,
To spend the best day of the year,

Right at the side of the one we love best,
Our own mothers—whom we all love so dear(ly).

So it gives us great pleasure to have you here for a day,
And we hope that you like it so fine.

That you'll hurry back soon for a day—or a week—

To have you here dear parents—

it's SUBLIME!

P. S.—To the parents who can't "make it":

This last ryme is transcribed,

Our thoughts are with you in all

The fun of which you're deprived.

P. S., Jr.—Parents, oh, parents,

Abide with this ryme,

The bats in the belfry abide,

But Spring does affect me

In just such a way—

Nevertheless—I'm on your side!

One professor assigned a special report to a girl recently to be given at 9 o'clock on Parent's Day.

"Please give it to me for Monday, instead," said the dear daughter. "My parents will be here then and will visit this class."

Points "pro" and "con" were discussed for a while. At last the professor said, "I have it! We'll rehearse our questions and answers.

Then when Miss So and So's parents walk in I'll ask her a question and she'll give a splendid answer."

"Yeah, that sounds swell," answered the girl, "but what will they say when the report card is received?"

Parents, there's one thing certain about this visit. We certainly cleaned out dresser drawers and closet shelves! Mothers are like that—

Daughteishly thine,

Sappy

Parents Day Among Activities Planned By Granddaughters

The Granddaughters' Club of the Georgia State College for Women, organized in 1932 for all students whose mothers were also students of G. S. C. W., is at present rounding out a very successful year by sponsoring the Parents' Day on May 11. The club has been led this year by Mabel Ellis, president; the other officers being Emily Johnson, vice-president; Clara Hollingshead, secretary; and Louise jeans, treasurer. There are, at present, seventy members.

The purpose of the Granddaughters' Club, as stated in its Constitution, are: To create and to enjoy a happy friendship based on that of our one time G. S. C. W. Student Mothers'; because of our peculiar heritage to form an ultra-loyal group; to express on the campus, by influential participation in student activities to carry this especial spirit with us as alumnae and keep in touch with G. S. C. W. always; to see that our club organization and spirit is continued from year to year.

Following is a list of the club's members:

Elizabeth Alford, Milledgeville; Isabella Allen, Monroe; Marianne Austin, Conyers; Adrienne Bacon, Plains; Frances Bone, Milledgeville; Carolyn Black, Dalton; Alice Breton, Vidalia; India Brown, Fort Gaines; Mary Houser Brown, Crotona; Frances M. Bruce, Columbus; Mildred Burnette, Gray; Martha Cheney, Albany; Genevieve Cox, East Point; Eleanor Cranston, Augusta; Louis Echols, Milledgeville; Dorothy Ellis, Monticello; Mabel Ellis, Monticello; Helen Hauna, Conyers; Mary Davis Harper, Decatur; Catherine Hart, Colbert; Lora Helon; Ruth Hollingshead, Milledgeville; Maude Holloway, Milledgeville; Abby Horne, Hawkinsville; Virginia Howard, Sylvania; Carolyn Hughes, Stillmore; Louise Jeans, Milledgeville; Eleanor Johnson; Emily Johnson; Dorothy Johnson, Norcross; Frances Joseph, Thomasville; Dimples Lewis; Catherine Mallory, Savannah; Sara Elizabeth Malone, Monticello; Frances Martin, Dawson; Mattie Jo May, Lincoln; Martha B. McDonald, Waycross; Marian Miles, Griffin; Harriet Minney, Warthen; Floride Moore, Milledgeville; Claire Moseley, Lyons; Margaret Moseley, Byron; Harriet Nelson, Ideal; Virginia Oliver, College Park; Dorris Peacock, Macon; Elizabeth Pollard, Jacksonville, Fla.; Minnie Belle Pryor; Ruth Pharr Roberts, Lawrenceville; Mary E. Rogers, Adel; Winnie Sheppard, Savannah; Martha A. Shields, Thompson; Margery Smith; Rachel Smith, Monticello; Virginia Smith, Sandersville; Annie Margaret Spears; Mary Brown Starr, Cordele; Emily Summerour, Duluth; Mario Summer, Superstition; Ethel Tye, Devereux; Margaret Vaughn, Thomasville; Maynard Wall, Hapeville; Mildred Watson, Griffin; Rosa Williams, Buena Vista; Louise Willingham, Washington; Mary Carey Willis, Columbus.

One professor assigned a special report to a girl recently to be given at 9 o'clock on Parent's Day. "Please give it to me for Monday, instead," said the dear daughter. "My parents will be here then and will visit this class."

Points "pro" and "con" were discussed for a while. At last the professor said, "I have it! We'll rehearse our questions and answers.

Then when Miss So and So's parents walk in I'll ask her a question and she'll give a splendid answer."

"Yeah, that sounds swell," answered the girl, "but what will they say when the report card is received?"

Parents, there's one thing certain about this visit. We certainly cleaned out dresser drawers and closet shelves! Mothers are like that—

Daughteishly thine,

Sappy

Miss Ethel Adams

Miss Ethel Adams, head of the English department and dean of girls at Griffin High School, has been selected by Guy H. Wells, president-elect to be Dean of Women at G. S. C. W.

Music Featured on Radio Programs

The "Health, Happiness and Success Hour" for Wednesday, May 1, to attend the national Y. W. C. A. convention held at Philadelphia from May 1st to 10th. This convention included delegates from all departments of the Y. W. C. A. throughout the United States. The topic for discussion centered around the thoughts, "How We, as Citizens of a World Community, Can Face the Problem of Social Change." The Next Steps to be Taken in Building Better Economic Order, and "The Place that One's Religious Philosophy Has in Building this Social Order."

Margaret K. went as chairman of the National Student Council. She presided over the student assembly that represented the Student Department of the National Convention.

Y Leader Presides At National Council

Margaret K. Smith, president of the Y. W. C. A., left Tuesday, May 1, to attend the national Y. W. C. A. convention held at Philadelphia from May 1st to 10th. This convention included delegates from all departments of the Y. W. C. A. throughout the United States. The topic for discussion centered around the thoughts, "How We, as Citizens of a World Community, Can Face the Problem of Social Change." The Next Steps to be Taken in Building Better Economic Order, and "The Place that One's Religious Philosophy Has in Building this Social Order."

Margaret K. went as chairman of the National Student Council. She presided over the student assembly that represented the Student Department of the National Convention.

MARVIN PARKS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The college hospital, Marvin Parks Memorial, was erected in 1927 at the cost of $40,000. The alumnae led in the movement to raise funds for its construction. They were assisted by the faculty, students, and friends of the college.

G. S. C. W. Lists Many "First" Among Outstanding Facts About the College

By Mary

The Georgia Normal and Industrial College, now the Georgia State College for Women, was created by a special act of the Georgia Legislature in 1889.

Hon. W. Y. Atkinson, representative from Coweta County, introduced into the lower house of the Legislature the bill for the establishment of the college.

From its founding until January 1, 1932 the College was under a Board of Directors. Since January 1, 1932 the college has been under the control of the Board of Regents of the State of Georgia and is one of the institutions of higher learning in the University System of Georgia of which Dr. Philip Wetherell is Chancellor.

Dr. Joseph Harris Chappell served as president of the college from 1890 to 1904, at which time he was granted a leave of absence because of failing health.

Dr. Marvin McIyeire Parks served as acting president in 1904 and as the second president from 1905 until his death, December 29, 1926, except for eleven months, August 1, 1922 to June 30, 1923. During this time Dr. Parks acted as State Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Jasper Luther Beeson, serving as acting-president.

Upon the death of Dr. Parks, Dr. Jasper L. Beeson became acting-president until his election as President of the College, July 31, 1928.

On July 1, 1934 Dr. Beeson becomes President Emeritus and

(Continued on back page)

Nursery School

If you were transplanted overnight to Russia, you would see nursery schools where aproned children are taught self-reliance and unselfishness.

However, Russia does not hold a monopoly on this project, America has perceived the value of group training for children at an early age.

Thus we see a rambling, gray house situated in a hollow just across the street from G. S. C. W.

It is the nursery school, sponsored by the college, where small individuals come every day from 9 until 2 o'clock.

Little tots ranging from two to five years of age are trained in regular habits of sleeping, eating and playing.

You would be completely convinced of the logic of this method of training if you could see the individual lockers, towels and combs provided for the children. How do they know which is theirs? Each child has a small picture placed just above his locker and since he is too young to learn his name, he learns to recognize his property by his particular picture.

Food is served in nursery bowls and the children must wait on themselves. If a child eats all of his food, he is rewarded by a simple dessert.

After lunch it is naptime. At 1:30 naps are over and milk is served. Then a line of children more healthy and efficient than they were before the school opened in March, troop home.

PHOTOGRAPHERS MAKE PICTURES OF CAMPUS
Mr. Kenneth Rogers and Mr. Turner Hires, of the Atlanta Constitution staff, spent Wednesday on the G. S. C. W. campus making photographs for a book of views of the college, which will be published soon.

Mr. Betty Watt was visited by her father recently.

Miss Louise Willingham was visited by her parents Sunday.

Freshman Hear Dean Scott At Chapel

Dr. Guy H. Wells of Statesboro assumes office and becomes the fourth president of the Georgia State College for Women.

The first class, composed of seventeen members, graduated from the college in 1892.

The standard four-year degree course was authorized in 1917.

The first summer session of the Georgia State College for Women was held in 1917.

The first summer session of six weeks was held in 1920 and regular college credit for work completed was awarded.

The first class to receive degrees graduated in June, 1921. There were four members of this class.

The Main Building which houses the administrative offices, classrooms, and the Assembly Hall was destroyed by fire on December 8, 1924.

The cornerstone of the old Main Building stands on the original site between Parks Hall and the Richard B. Russell Auditorium.

The college campus consists of twenty-three acres. In addition to this, Government Square Park of about sixteen acres provides recreational grounds.

"It was the first college to require Agriculture and Home Economics in the regular course of

Vocational Class Makes Survey

At chapel last Wednesday Dean Scott gave an interesting discussion on "Education as a Means of Studying for Citizenship."

He said that the problems in education which must be solved in the near future are: a. Physical Hygiene; b. Mental Hygiene; c. Understanding Social and Economic conditions d. ability to earn a living if necessary; e. Leisure time.

"The people are depending on the schools, which must not fail, to educate the children," reported Dean Scott.

In conclusion he urged that students take up the responsibility for the safety of the state as well as the people.

The survey is being carried out by means of a questionnaire form which asks such pertinent questions as "Are you satisfied with your present work?" "If you were beginning again would you choose the same work?" "What would you prefer doing?" "What work while at college has influenced your vocation?" "Can you suggest how this college can best help its students find their places in society?" and "what openings are in your community for different lines of work?"

Unless the members of this group have the absolute cooperation of 4,008 graduates to whom this questionnaire has been sent, it will be hard for them to obtain the most valuable data possible for such a survey. Every returned questionnaire properly answered, helps to substantiate the results obtained.

The results of the survey should yield much valuable information to the school and it is hoped that the entire project will be organized in order to print this information in bulletin form as soon as possible.

Formerly this park was a twenty acre square of land donated by the Georgia legislature to the aldermen of Milledgeville for the benefit of the Georgia Military College. After several years it was purchased by the Georgia State College for Women at a cost of $7,500. The initial payment was made by the class of 1919. Since that time it has been gradually developed into a beautiful park. Groups of individuals have given plants and bulbs, the art department planned the gate, and other groups have had a part in its improvement.

In 1929, the log cabin was built for the pleasure and convenience of the students and faculty. This year a lily pool has been built, tennis courts have been made, and the natural amphitheatre has been graded into a stadium.

The park is now a profusion of cut and wild flowers, vines and evergreens.

PUBLICATIONS

Three different publications are issued from the Georgia State College for Women by editors selected from the student body.

The oldest campus edition is the college annual, now called the Spectrum. It is a mirror of college life and activities.

The Colonnade, the weekly chronicle of college events, had its origin in 1925. This paper was formerly the Y. W. C. A. bulletin called the Triangle.

The Corinthian, a quarterly, had its beginning in February, 1927. It is a literary magazine sponsored by the Literary Guild for the purpose of encouraging creative writing.

Besides these publications the college issues monthly bulletins including a general catalogue.

Dr. Wynn Publishes English Grammar

At chapel last Wednesday Dean Scott gave an interesting discussion on "Education as a Means of Studying for Citizenship."

He said that the problems in education which must be solved in the near future are: a. Physical Hygiene; b. Mental Hygiene; c. Understanding Social and Economic conditions d. ability to earn a living if necessary; e. Leisure time.

"The people are depending on the schools, which must not fail, to educate the children," reported Dean Scott.

In conclusion he urged that students take up the responsibility for the safety of the state as well as the people.

The book is bound in blue waterproof cloth and has a very attractive appearance.

New Tennis Courts And Pool Made At College Park

On Thursday May 3, the Athletic Pageantry Guild entertained the Health Club at a waffle supper in the college tea room.

The program included several piano selections by Miss Evelyn Groover and tap dancing by Miss Juliette Burris.

Among those present were: Miss Ruth Hunt, Dorothy Allen, Mamie Beall, Margaret Burney, Margaret Collins, Rachel Conine, Ethel Dye, Margaret Edwards, Eloise Ellzey, Celia Freeman, Alma Hadden, Helen Hanna, Elizabeth Harris, Louise Hatcher, Billee Howington, Viola James, Louise Jeanes, Billie Jennings, Margaret Johnson, Sara Kaminer, Ruby Mathias, Martha Lou Meadows, Edna Mims, Ruby Pickens, Kathleen Roberts, Julia Rucker, Frances Sanchez, Mary Sawyer, Maud New Sheppard, Martha Shields, Vilda Shuman, Elizabeth Spier, Martha Ann Stanford, Betty Watt, Jane Cassels, Helen Douglass, Buena Kinney, Sara Hamer, Agnes Armstrong, Dorothy Coleman, Sue Alston, Robbie Rogers, and Charlotte Sanchez.

The results of the survey should yield much valuable information to the school and it is hoped that the entire project will be organized in order to print this information in bulletin form as soon as possible.

Formerly this park was a twenty acre square of land donated by the Georgia legislature to the aldermen of Milledgeville for the benefit of the Georgia Military College.

After several years it was purchased by the Georgia State College for Women at a cost of $7,500. The initial payment was made by the class of 1919. Since that time it has been gradually developed into a beautiful park.

Groups of individuals have given plants and bulbs, the art department planned the gate, and other groups have had a part in its improvement.

In 1929, the log cabin was built for the pleasure and convenience of the students and faculty. This year a lily pool has been built, tennis courts have been made, and the natural amphitheatre has been graded into a stadium.

The park is now a profusion of cut and wild flowers, vines and evergreens.

THE TEACHERS' EXCHANGE

No, it is not a teachers' agency. Yet, in its true sense it is, since it embraces the two-fold purpose of bringing together through correspondence, schools needing teachers and teachers wanting positions.

Mr. O. A. Thaxton, in charge of the teachers' exchange at the Georgia State College for Women, spends a large amount of his time in efforts to obtain teaching positions for the college graduates. Letters enclosing blanks for information about vacancies are written to school superintendents throughout Georgia. Should there be a vacancy, Mr. Thaxton recommends the student best qualified to fill the place.

The Colonnade, the weekly chronicle of college events, had its origin in 1925. This paper was formerly the Y. W. C. A. bulletin called the Triangle.

The Corinthian, a quarterly, had its beginning in February, 1927. It is a literary magazine sponsored by the Literary Guild for the purpose of encouraging creative writing.

Besides these publications the college issues monthly bulletins including a general catalogue.

This service is entirely free to the students.

G. S. C. W. For The ALUMNAE

23,000 Students Are G. S. C. Alumnae

By Mary Lee Anderson, President

G. S. C. W. is justly proud of her daughters who number more than twenty-three thousand, live in nearly every country in the world, in all the states of the union, and in every county of Georgia.

The organization of so large an alumnae body is necessarily a big undertaking. The Alumnae Association has grown by the sheer force of loyalty to G. S. C. W. Year by year the organization has developed and strengthened until there is now a state association which is a member of the National American Alumni council. There are a state president; first vice-president, who has charge of campus contacts; second vice-president of the state-at-large; secretary; treasurer, and ten district vice-presidents who have charge of the organization in each of the ten districts of Georgia.

Freshman Council is working on its project, a freshman playlet in which the entire class is expected to participate. The plans should be completed on or before May 20.

Mr. Smith, the Methodist minister, talked at vespers last Thursday on "The Gift of Life."

Mrs. M. M. Parks spoke last

Sunday night on "How to worship Through Music" as a part of the program for National Music week.

Georgia Chapter of Sigma Pi Rho Will Be Organized Here

Recently the Latin department of G. S. C. W. had the distinct honor to be invited to become the Georgia Alpha chapter of Sigma Pi Rho, an honorary fraternity standing for high general scholarship, keen interest and a high standing in Latin, and the fostering of the teaching of Latin.

The alumnae office is a most active center. All contacts are made from the office, a great deal of information is sent out from it, and the alumnae files are kept there. It is the one great hope of the present executive committee that a full time general secretary will be the next step accomplished in the organization of the association.

The general annual program follows:

I. Greeting to Student Body, first chapel exercise.

II. Direction and Entertainment of Granddaughters Club.

III. Alumnae Council Meeting.

A. Friday after Thanksgiving.

B. Chapel Exercises.

C. Alumnae Tea.

IV. Pilgrimage to Dr. Parks' Tomb, November 29.

V. Christmas Parties Throughout the State. Granddaughters Christmas Party of the Campus.

VI. Alumnae Entertainment of Student Officials on the Campus.

VII. Mothers' and Fathers' Day.

VIII. Spring Alumnae Entertainment of Granddaughters.

IX. Annual Meeting at G. E. A. Luncheon.

X. Election of Class Secretaries.

XI. Commencement Program.

1. Reunion—June 2-4.

2. Induction Exercises—June

2, 7:00 P. M.

3. Alumnae Banquet—June 2,

7:30 P. M., Ennis Hall.

4. Reunion Class Breakfast—

June 3, 8:00 A. M., Atkinson Hall.

5. Baccalaureate Sermon—

June 3, A. M.

6. Graduation Exercises—June

4, A. M. Welcome of Seniors to Alumnae Association.

9. Lunch.

Miller Bell Hall—Reunion Center.

Those who are not otherwise provided for go there. Special

Alumnae rates $1 day, board and lodging; linen furnished.

Please reserve for me

copies of "G. S. C. W.

Book of Verse, Volume 1, 1934" for which I agree to pay not more than 70 cents each.

(The price to depend on the number sold.)

Russell Portrait To Be Unveiled May 13

By Mary Lee Anderson, President

Ina Dillard Russell will be unveiled in the G. S. C. W. college library which bears her name.

The portrait is an oil painting by the distinguished Vernon Lydon, of Sandersville. It is a gift of a circle of friends of Mrs. Russell and the Georgia State College for Women.

Freshman Council is working on its project, a freshman playlet in which the entire class is expected to participate. The plans should be completed on or before May 20.

Mr. Smith, the Methodist minister, talked at vespers last Thursday on "The Gift of Life."

Mrs. M. M. Parks spoke last

Sunday night on "How to worship Through Music" as a part of the program for National Music week.

All new committees meet this

Many First Among Outstanding Facts About College

(Continued from page four)

study for students.

"It was the first institution in the South (in 1906) to place Home Economics on a par with other departments, and to offer diplomas for specialization in the home sciences and arts.

"This institution has been among the first in the country to place great emphasis upon Health Education, and to maintain a fully organized department for the study of that subject.

"It was the first normal school in the state to rise into a standard college and to confer the baccalaureate degrees."

There are 6103 graduates with diplomas and 1269 graduates with degrees.

In its organization the College maintains:

I. The college of Arts and Sciences.

II. The School of Education and Teacher Training.

III. The School of Home Economics.

IV. The Summer School.

V. The Division of General Extension.

The college confers the following degrees:

I. Bachelor of Arts.

II. Bachelor of Science (General).

III. Bachelor of Science (Education).

IV. Bachelor of Science (Vocational Home Economics).

The Georgia State College for Women is a member of:

1. The Association of Georgia Colleges.

2. The American of Teachers' Colleges.

3. The Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States.

4. The Southern Association of Colleges for Women.

5. The Association of American Colleges.

Some of the outstanding events of the history of this great college are listed in the above paragraphs, but some of the most interesting parts are recorded in the hearts and memories of the hundreds of graduates and former students. For them a few key phrases will bring back an unwritten history that is our college. Consider these:

Uniforms

Normal diploma essays

Theses

Class trips

Sugar cane hikes

Hallowe'en parties, Ghost suppers

Breakfast in the woods

Annual hikes across the river

Field days

Stunt nights

Watermelon cuttings

Who's Who elections

College clubs

Annals

Y. W. C. A.

Inter-class debates

Barbecues

Alumnae and class banquets

The list of historic events is interminable. Why not build your own?

May 11, 1934 marks the first official Parents Day.

June 2-4 marks another Com-

Health Official Is Chapel Speaker

Dr. Joe P. Bowdoin, chief of the Division of Child Hygiene and Venereal Diseases of the Georgia Department of Public Health spoke in chapel Thursday on the subject of child welfare. Dr. Bowdoin also spoke to the classes in the health department.

42 Students Enter For Short Quarter

Forty-two students entered school at the beginning of the Spring term in April to delve into the realms of books and the arts at G. S. C. W. These students will be able to complete an entire quarter's work by the end of summer school.

Among those who entered are:

Willie Mae Aspinwall, Odum; Naomi Bell, Doerun; Evelyn Carmichael, Canton; Imogene Chambliss, Rentz; Jessie Champion, Elberton; Velma Cleveland, LaGrange; Nelle Cobb, Alpharetta; Mae Cole, Wildwood; Blanche Cook, LaGrange; Emogene Curl, Swainsboro; Martha DeLoache, LaGrange; Caroline Fountain, Hawkinsville; Dana Funderburg, Lawrenceville; Mrs. Claude Harrell, Chuncey; Odessa Hasty, Moultrie; Mrs. Samuel Hicks, Adel; Juanita Hill, Pineview; Ruth Jones, Adel; Mary King, Fort Gaines; Grace Lanier, Pembroke; Mrs. F. A. McKelvey, Lawrenceville; Frances Matin, Dawson; Annie Ruth Mauldin, Doerun; Travis Mock, Suzanne Mason, Swainsboro; Anna Maynard, Orlando, Fla.; Alta Nicholson, Eastman; Willie Mary Nicholson, Eastman; Merlyn Parrish, Pavo; Willie Jo Pittman, Sharon; Mrs. Baisden Rivers, Milledgeville; Mervyn Singletary, Meigs; Bernice Sloan, Bronice Sloan; Mrs. A. L. Steele, Eastman; Yevia Stripling; Mary Summerour, Duluth; Anne Helen Tanner, Dublin; Nona Taylor, Adel; Carolyn Wade, Macon; Ethel Waters, Pavo, and Sara Frances Wells, Fitzgerald.

The orchestra gave a most enjoyable performance on Tuesday, May 8, at the chapel program. Miss Beatrice Horsbrugh is director of the orchestra. Miss Jenkins played a number of organ solos.

On Wednesday night at 8:30 the entire music department was presented in a concert which was greatly enjoyed.

The Georgia Military College band will give a band concert in the G. S. C. W. auditorium tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

G S C Observes Music Week With Series Of Concerts

The music faculty of G. S. C. W. arranged a number of entertaining programs which were given during the week of May 6 to 11 in observance of National Music Week. Each evening these programs were given in the auditorium under the direction of Miss Maggie Jenkins, Miss Leonore Tucker, Miss Beatrice Horsbrugh, Mrs. Wyles Homer Allen, and Mrs. Nelle Womack Hines.

The Y. W. C. A. sponsored a delightful musical program on Sunday evening at Vespers. Miss Polly Moss was in charge.

The G. S. C. W. Glee Club was presented in concert on Monday evening, May 7, by Miss Leonore Tucker, director, and Mrs. Allen, accompanist.

The orchestra gave a most enjoyable performance on Tuesday, May 8, at the chapel program. Miss Beatrice Horsbrugh is director of the orchestra. Miss Jenkins played a number of organ solos.

On Wednesday night at 8:30 the entire music department was presented in a concert which was greatly enjoyed.

The Georgia Military College band will give a band concert in the G. S. C. W. auditorium tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

COMMISSION GIVES PICNIC SUPPER

The members of sophomore commission enjoyed a delightful supper at Calloway Woods on Monday afternoon, May 7.

Besides the commissioners those present were: Misses Louise Smith, faculty advisor of commission, Polly Moss, and her guest, Margaret Meadows, of Dahlonega, and Ruth Vinson.

Recently an experiment was made, which proved that women were no more changeable than men. Thank you, mister, who ever you are.

HOW MONEY PAID BY THE STATE AND PATRON IS SPENT AT G. S. C. W.

That the public might understand just how the money received at the Bursar's office is spent, a tabulation prepared by Mr. Fowler is given below.

Tabulation on a Nine Month's Basis

College Receives	College Pays Out
Fees	Administration .0666
$ 54 from patron (9 months)	Instruction .3637
127.50 from state	Instructional .0166
$181.50 total	Supplies .0266
20.17 per month	Library .1588
.6723 per day	Operation and Maintenance .0200
	Publications .6723 per day
Laundry 9 months
$18.09 (9 months)	to washerwoman for clothing .0667
$ 2.00 (Month)	to laundries for dining room and
50 (week)	hospital linens .0166
	.0833 per day
Board
$144.00 (9 months)	food .3300
16.00 (month)	servants .0300
	heat .0310
.5333 (day)	Lights .0250
	water .0050
	chaperones and assistants .0236
	hospital .0166
	doctor, etc. .0225
	medicine .0120
	repairs and upkeep of furniture .0035
	maintenance, carpenters, paints, etc. .0343
	.5333 per day

Freshman Class Has Party in Ennis

EACH DORMITORY AND LOCAL STUDENTS PRESENT SKIT.

The freshman class entertained at a delightful dinner and dance in Ennis recreation hall on Monday evening, May 7, at 7 o'clock. The hall was attractively decorated with the class colors of green and white. This color scheme was also carried out in the delicious refreshments.

The special guests for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Fowler, Mrs. Ethel Beaman, and Miss Elizabeth Carswell, of Macon, former president of the freshman class.

A most enjoyable program was given during the dinner, and each dormitory had a special number. Ennis hall presented a children's entertainment, and those taking part were Mary Carruth, Martha Joiner, and Jane O'Neal. Bell Hall was represented by Margaret Patrick, who sang several songs, and Lucy Preston, Mary Harris, and Elsie McIver, who gave a skit of "Blue Beard's Wives."

The town girls part of the program was a skit of "Little Miss Muffet" given by Juanita Ingram, Frances Smith, and Olive Mae Tennille. Terrell hall's interpretation of "We Just Couldn't Say Goodby" was given by Helen May, Odene Peavy, Leonora Bacon, Martha Franklin, Mildred Folds, Evelyn Quattlebaum, Lucile Martin, Margaret Pace, Mary Hasty, Mary Lassiter, Nan Wilder, and Doris Grossman.

Mary Hogg, Atkinson hall, gave a delightful reading of "Fleas," and Martha Harrison sang.

Bell annex's special number was given by Martha Gray Carithers in a musical reading. She was accompanied by Evelyn Groover at the piano.

The Globe Trotters

We are going to start off this time without counting the weeks, and talking about how many weeks and so forth like we are always inclined to do, and see if we can give you a little news.

Japan has changed its name. Now it is Nippon. Japanese claim that the word, Japan, was a wrong pronunciation for a word that means "land of the rising sun," and Nippon is the right word, so it has been changed to Nippon.

Roosevelt made a talk defending the New Deal, in which he says that America is seeing an evolution instead of a revolution.

Before we leave Roosevelt—he is attempting to strengthen the federal police, on account, or rather the fact may have reminded him, of Dillinger, the famous criminal who has done so many daring deeds.

A plot was bared recently in Roumania for the kidnapping and possibly the murder of King Carol and Mme. Lupescu. It is reported that her health has been impaired by the many threats sent to her recently.

A scientist is telling us now that the earth is becoming larger with every breath we draw; somehow we can't see it, but we'll have to take his word for it.

France is beginning to be terribly worried by the Japanese, or perhaps now we should say, Nipponese phrase "Asia for Asiatics." Indo-China is one of her prize possessions.

England is prouder than ever at the end, (we hope) of this depression. Her government has been the most stable, and she has had less of new, experimental government than any other leading nation.

Until next week,

The Globetrotters

Athletic Council

(Continued from page one)

same time, the archery tournament will take place.

The last event in the week's program will be the presentation of the class and color cups by Dr. Beeson in the auditorium Saturday night at 8:00. At this time a trophy will be given the class and the color which has ranked highest in athletic participation during the year. After the cups have been presented, the winners of the tennis tournament and archery contest will be given brown and gold ribbons.

Athletic Council, composed of three representatives from each class, has as its president, Billie Howington. She has expressed a desire to have a hundred percent participation in the play week by the student body.